

exceptional with frosty illustrations and inscriptions on a mirror-like brilliant background. However, it is unfortunately quite expensive (US $49). Interested readers may contact the numismatic editor for more information on availability.

INFORMATION WANTED - Coins-of-tradition, pleasure-coins, fantasy coins, patterns and trial strikes issued by Royal Houses or Governments-in-exile, fantasy countries or nationalist organisations; new or old issues, new discoveries or classic issues. Any information regarding these would be of interest to the Editor of the numismatic section of ATALAYA. Please contact Serge Huard, CP 244, Succ. P.A.T., Montréal, PQ, H1B 5K3, Canada.

PATTERN OF THE 1988 LATVIAN COIN-OF-TRADITION FREE EXCLUSIVELY TO READERS OF ATALAYA!

As readers of ATALAYA no. 34 will remember, in 1988, the Legation of Latvia in Washington, then the only Latvian diplomatic authority recognised by the United States (and by most of the Western world countries), issued a 1 Trojas Unce coin-of-tradition to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the establishment of the Republic of Latvia. As part of this numismatic programme a bronze pattern with a mintage of only 400 pieces was authorized by the Lagation mainly for presentation purposes. With the re-establishment of the independent Republic of Latvia, these historic and interesting patterns are certainly destined to become valuable collector's items. The numismatic editor of this publication was able to acquire 43 of these superb and unusual patterns and is offering a FREE specimen (absolutely without any obligation) to the 43 first readers who request it. Simply write a letter to the numismatic editor stating that you are a reader of ATALAYA and request your copy. Please add US $2 for airmail postage. Naturally, this offer is limited by the quantity in stock. Strictly first come, first served.

